Piano.

The sun shines bright in the old Ken-tuck-y home, 'Tis sum-mer the dark-les are gay; the they hunt no more for the 'possum and the coon, On the meadow, the hill, and the shore; they the head must bow, and the back will have to bend, Wher-ev-er the dar-key may go; A corn top's ripe and the mea-dow's in the bloom, While the birds make mu-sic all the day. the sing no more by the glim-mer of the moon, On the bench by the old cab-in door. the few more days, and the trou-ble all will end, In the field where the sugar-canes grow. A young folks roll on the lit-tle cab-in floor, All mer-ry, all hap-py and bright, By'n day goes by like a sha-dow o'er the heart, With sor-row where all was de-light; the few more days far to tote the wea-ry load, No mat-ter, 'twill nev-er be light, A home, Good night!

by hard times comes a knock ing at the door. Then my old Ken-tuck-y Home good night! time has come when the dark-les have to part. Then my old Ken-tuck-y Home good night!
few more days till we tot-ter on the road then my old Ken-tuck-y Home good night!
